Listing of Authenticated Gosho (Goibun) of Nichiren DaiShonin

This is a strict list of all authentic writings by Nichiren Shonin upon which scholars and the many Nichiren Schools can agree. It is based on the Showa teihon Nichiren Shonin Iibun published by Minobusan Kuonji in 1982. Nichiren Shu Buddhists call

Nichiren Shonin's writings "Goibun" although the term "Gosho" was coined by Nikko Shonin and so such is the more common term in the Nikko lineages. This list contains 267 Gosho with links to those which have been translated into Western languages. If you know of an online translation of one of the gosho listed below, please send me the address!

Some have asked for a more concise list of gosho from the the SGI's latest translation published in 1999, The Writings of Nichiren Daishonin, which are considered to be authentic by Nichiren Shu and the other Nichiren Schools. So here is a list of the gosho included below, by their number in the WND's Table of Contents: 2, 10, 11, 12, 14, 16, 22, 24, 26, 27, 30, 37, 38, 39, 42, 43, 44, 49, 54, 55, 58, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 72, 73, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 85, 87, 88, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 105, 106, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 119, 120, 122, 123, 124, 133, 135, 138, 140, 143, 148, 149, 154, 156, 157, 158, 159, 162, 163, 165, 166, 168.

In the listing below...

Title is the romanized Japanese titles.

- There may be some minor variation in the romanizations used by various Schools.
- * is the title that Nichiren Shonin named. These are only 11 gosho.
- ^ indicates one of the ten major writings of Nichiren as designated by Nikko Shonin.

Date is when that gosho was written. There are some "u" in front of months like uMar.

- "u" is uruu and means leap month.

Where is where that gosho was written.

Whom is to whom Nichiren Shonin wrote that gosho.

Type is the form of that gosho at present.

- "T" means a true gosho and that we have an original at present.
- "U" means what was confirmed to be a true gosho, however, the original was lost in the past.
- "P" means that we have some portions of that gosho, but not in whole.
- "C" means what was copied by Nichiren's Shonin's direct disciples like Nikko Shonin.
